Dear Mr. Lloyd:

On 7 June 2019, the office of the Information and Privacy Coordinator received your 6 June 2019 letter asking for the status concerning your 8 March 2019 Freedom of Information Act request. You also stated you did not receive an acknowledgement letter; we are enclosing a copy of our 1 April 2019 letter for your records.

Please be assured that your request is still in process. We can appreciate your concern with not having received a final response to your request. It is the overwhelming number of requests and their complexity that causes delays in our responses. Meanwhile, we appreciate your patience and understanding while we continue to process your request.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Lloyd:

On 8 March 2019, the office of the Information and Privacy Coordinator received your 8 March 2019 correspondence requesting records under the Freedom of Information Act. This is a quick acknowledgement to advise you that we received your request. Specifically, your request is for any and all material on Allard K. Lowenstein. Your request was assigned the reference number above. Please use this number when corresponding so that we can identify it easily.

Our officers will review and process your request in more detail and will only communicate to you if they should encounter any problems or if they cannot begin the search without additional information or clarification. We will search for CIA-originated records up to and including the date the Agency starts its search.

Sincerely,
